The TSC will take reasonable steps to collect information directly from the individual. The TSC may collect information via written or electronic correspondence including telephone, email, fax and/or social media such as Facebook and Twitter. Information may also be collected in person.

Wherever it is lawful and practical, the TSC will provide you with the option of not identifying yourself.

4. Use and disclosure of Personal Information or Health information

The TSC will only use or disclose Personal Information or Health Information as set out in this Privacy Policy or for the purpose which was either specified or reasonably apparent at the time of collection unless you have consented to, or would reasonably expect, another related use.

A person may apply to the TSC to restrict public access to information that is included on the Register. The TSC will only approve such an application if satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the restriction.

Examples include booking services/associations, bus depots/associations, driving instructor associations, Melbourne Airport and relevant state and federal government agencies including Victoria Police and VicRoads.

4.4 Disclosure outside Victoria

The TSC will only transfer your Personal Information or Health Information to another individual or organisation outside Victoria in limited circumstances, including when the recipient is subject to a law which upholds similar principles to the IPPs or HPPs, or you consent to the transfer. Under Section 169ZC of the Transport (Compliance and Miscellaneous) Act 1983, the TSC may, if it decides that it is necessary to do so, correct any error or omission in the Register or the public version of the Register (refer to section 4.1).

The TSC will not:

- assign, use or disclose unique identifiers to individuals unless it is necessary to do so to carry out one of its organisational functions efficiently;
- adopt, use or disclose a unique identifier assigned to you by another organisation except in limited circumstances; or
